

TWO BOYS BACK UP ON STORIES TOLD IN TRIAL FOR SLANDER

Judgment of $500 Given Bird
Against Miss Huber Now
In Jeopardy

AFFIDAVITS SAY THE TESTIMONY PROMPTED

After Reversing Tale, Woodward Drops to Original;
Dorston Stays Reversed

Yesterday Willard Woodward and Dietrich Dorston, two Orange boys upon whose testimony Judge Thomas gave P. I. Bird $500 judgment against Miss Bertha Huber for slander, made affidavits that testimony given by them at the trial was untrue.

At the trial young Woodward testified that Miss Huber gave him a letter to be delivered to Mrs. Spray. Wednesday the boy made an affidavit that nobody ever gave him such a letter. Today he again reversed, and stood pat on his original story that Miss Huber gave him the letter.

At the trial Dietrich Dorston testified that Miss Huber gave him a letter to be delivered to Mrs. Kiser. Yesterday he made affidavit that what he had said was not true, that the woman who gave him the affidavit was not Miss Huber. Today he stood pat on his last assertion.

One of the most unusual situations has arisen in the case of P. I. Bird against Miss Bertha Huber that it has been the lot of local court authorities to experience.

Mixed into the tale are statements that by suggestion and insinuation the testimony of the two boys against Miss Huber was developed largely by Mrs. Firman, a private detective employed by P. I. Bird to ferret out the name of the person who had circulated or had aided in circulating letters derogatory to him and his family.

On top of this come other statements that since the trial by threats Mrs. W. H. H. Clayton of Orange has secured from the boys affidavits declaring their testimony against Miss Huber to be utterly false and groundless.

Goes After the Truth
Has pulling and hauling one way and then the other influenced the stories of the two boys?

Certain it is that a strange situation has arisen. Some of those who sat in Judge Thomas' chambers this morning and heard the stories told by the two boys are utterly at sea.

In giving judgment to Miss Huber several weeks ago, Judge Thomas frankly said that he did it upon the testimony of the two boys, aged about 13 years each. In that trial Attorney Clyde Bishop represented Bird, who admittedly had been slandered, and H. C. Head was attorney for Miss Huber. Since then Attorney B. E. Tarver has entered into the case for the defense. A motion for a new trial is to be made, and the defense has until September 20 in which to present it. The defense has presented affidavits of the two main witnesses as reason for the new trial.

The Affidavits
The affidavit made by Dietrich Dorsten follows:

"Dietrich Dorsten, being first duly sworn, deposes and says: I am the same boy who testified at the trial of the above entitled action; that at said trial I testified that I had received from the defendant a certain note or letter, which, under her instructions I had delivered to Mrs. Kiser, which said letter or note was introduced in evidence at said trial. I now say that I never saw the defendant, Bertha Huber, until she was pointed out to me by Mrs. Firman, the detective employed by the plaintiff in this case; that the defendant, Bertha Huber, never at any time delivered to me any note or letter to be delivered to any one; that my testimony at said trial wherein I said that the defendant, Bertha Huber, delivered or gave me a letter to be given or delivered to Mrs. Kiser, was untrue, and that I was mistaken about that matter; that a woman did give me a letter about the time that I testified that Bertha Huber gave me a letter to be delivered to Mrs. Kiser, but that woman looked like a Mexican, and not Bertha Huber."

Woodward's Affidavit
The affidavit made by the Woodward boy follows:

"Willard Woodward, being first duly sworn, deposes and says: I am the same boy who testified at the trial of the above entitled action; that at said trial I testified that I had received from the defendant a certain note or letter, which, under her instructions I had delivered to Mrs. Spray, which said letter or note was introduced in evidence at said trial. I now say that I never saw the defendant, Bertha Huber, until she was pointed out to me by Mrs. Firman, the detective employed by the plaintiff in this case; that the defendant, Bertha Huber, never at any time delivered to me any note or letter to be delivered to any one; that my testimony at said trial wherein I said that the defendant, Bertha Huber, delivered or gave me a letter to be given or delivered to Mrs. Spray, was untrue, and that I was mistaken about that matter; that a woman did give me a letter about the time that I testified that Bertha Huber gave me a letter to be delivered to Mrs. Spray, but that woman looked like a Mexican, and not Bertha Huber."

NOGALES, Sept. 17.—Villa's forces, defending Nogales, Sonora, concentrated the fire of forty machine guns and twenty field guns on the Carranza right wing, shattering it and causing a precipitate retreat. The Carranzistas lost 350 killed, 300 wounded and 650 prisoners.

Villa's Yaquis captured the Carranza trenches on the east bank of the Santa Cruz river, but lost 200 killed, 300 wounded, fifty captured.

The Carranzistas captured three machine guns from Villa forces, two howitzers and a cargo of ammunition.

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Sept. 17.—Prof. Lillian Jane Martin of Stanford psychology department, declares love a weakness. "It's weakening to fall in love and weaklings are not wanted at Stanford," said Professor Martin.

She advances the following prescription for those desiring to rid themselves of the love habit: "Cut out social events if you have any tendency to fall in love. If affected by certain localities cut out that location. Stay away from the thing which excites love, whatever it may be."

ASK CONTEMPT WRIT AGAINST MAYOR ROLPH

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 17.—The United Railroads has asked the Supreme Court to issue a writ of mandate directing the Superior Court to issue a contempt citation against Mayor James Rolph, Jr., three members of the Board of Public Works and Thomas A. Cashing, superintendent of the San Francisco Municipal Railways for alleged violation of an injunction issued by the lower court last July, restraining the operation of two municipal lines over certain tracks. The application is an appeal from the recent decision of Superior Judge George E. Crothers, who quashed the contempt charges against the mayor and the members of the board and fixed a nominal fine against Cashing.

Billion Dollar Loan Is Cut to Half That Sum

NEW YORK, Sept. 17.—Regarding the proposed billion dollar loan to Great Britain and France it was said here today that American financiers would only lend half that sum, but the commission which is endeavoring to negotiate the loan was silent on the question. Bankers are of the opinion that in suggesting the gigantic sum of one billion dollars the commission only sought to place itself in such a position that a compromise sum of half a billion might be agreed upon. The men who have come over here representing Great Britain and France, in the opinion of Wall Street, are master players in the game of world finance. Like all good players, they do not betray by their words what their intentions are, nor do they place all their cards on the table at once, as Wall Street views it. Consequently, it is expected that there will be many more developments before it will be seen what they are really striving for and whether they will win. The secretary of the commission last night gave out a statement the conclusion of which said: "As to any actual negotiations covering a proposed loan, it is almost too much to say that they are actually under way as yet, but so much has already been accomplished in ascertaining the exact facts of the situation that it is hoped that the time for some definite statement as to progress will soon arrive."

This morning it was learned that Rockefeller, Jr., was seriously considering lending several million dollars. It is understood that straight British and French bonds will be offered as security without collateral. The commission which will be allowed the syndicate which is negotiating the loan will be half of one per cent, making the interest rate 5 1/2 per cent.

Rockefeller, Sr., Will Not Consider the Loan

(Copyright 1915 by United Press)
CLEVELAND, Sept. 17.—John D. Rockefeller, Sr., has definitely, positively and finally declared that he will take no part in the loaning of money to carry on the conflict in Europe. In an interview obtained with the world's richest man, by the United Press today, it was learned that the oil king has been offered opportunities to enrich himself further by lending money to the warring nations but has absolutely refused.

"Are you expecting a call from the commission of European bankers now in New York to arrange a billion dollar war loan for the Allies?" he was asked.

"No," he replied, emphatically. "They know I wouldn't consider it." Then, after a pause, he added:

"Both England and France asked me for loans but they were refused."

He was again meditatively silent for a moment and then exclaimed fervently: "This war is awful. Don't you think it is awful?"

With reference to the Wall Street report that the financing of the war is enabling Morgan to take from Rockefeller the title of "the richest man in the world," this question was put to Rockefeller:

"What effect will the loan have on conditions if Morgan negotiates the billion dollar loan for the Allies?"

The shrewd smile of the sagacious business man played over his face. Then, instead of answering directly, he recited:

"A wise old owl lived in an oak, the more he saw the less he spoke; the less he spoke the more he heard. Why can't we all be like that bird?"

PARIS, Sept. 17.—France sees no prospect for peace, despite the heavily mounting cost of hostilities. By passing the bill calling for 400,000 more arms the French parliament notifies Germany that the war will be fought to a finish.

Officialdom here has endorsed the statement of Premier Assolant that the struggle has resolved itself into a gigantic battle of resources. Recent developments, including the German failure to crush the Russians, has convinced the French people that the tide is about to turn in favor of the allies.

Inasmuch as the class of 1917 now called to the colors can not take to the trenches before May, is regarded as indicating the belief that the war will continue at least another year. Orders to hold class 1888 in readiness for service is a precautionary measure, otherwise the class would have been mustered out next month. The bill makes them liable to service in case of emergency.

(C. J. Faulkner, representing the Armour company, declared that the packers intend to do everything possible to force British redress through legal channels.)

Must Quit Work or Die

Vienna Sends Death Notice

PITTSBURG, Sept. 17.—Despite Austrian assurances that the government is not seeking to meddle in American labor affairs or cripple American industries, Austro-Hungarian newspaper published in the United States have printed official warnings that death will be meted out to Austrians and Hungarians working in munitions plants. The Austrian Consul here has admitted that he issued the death warnings on instructions from Vienna. The warning follows:

"The Imperial Royal Foreign Office has empowered the Imperial Royal Austro-Hungarian Embassy to inform all Austro-Hungarian subjects, also residents of Bosnia and Herzegovina, that inasmuch as they are working in factories that are manufacturing guns and supplies for the enemy, which conflicts with the meaning of section 327, Austro-Hungarian army laws, they become guilty as accessories before the fact in working against the army strength of their country. This provides a penalty of ten or twenty years' imprisonment, and, if the circumstances warrant, the death penalty. In case the subjects return to their country they make themselves liable to the most severe punishment of the law."

ALWAYS REASONS FOR SKIDDING, SAYS EXPERT

Skids May Occur On Dry Roads As Result of Gravel, Dust or Sand

CAR TRACKS MENACE IN WET WEATHER

Eternal Vigilance Is Needed; MoToR Writer Gives Helpful Hints

"The fear of skidding is the beginning of many skids, for a nervous driver makes a nervous car," writes Murray Fahnestock in Motor. "But, even as ghosts lose their terrors as they become better known, so, too, drivers lose much of their fear as they become better acquainted with the causes and effects of skidding."

Fahnestock goes on to say that an automobile never skids without cause. Motorists should remember this, the writer says, as it serves to remove the unexpectedness from skidding and enables the driver to anticipate and often prevent a skid. By studying the causes of skids they can often be eliminated and the necessity of applying the remedy removed. "The causes are contained in the natural laws of friction and inertia, and study of these laws will make a better as well as a safer driver." Even the man who generally drives in fine weather is at some time or other caught in the rain, and if he has given attention to the causes of side slips he is far more apt to return home safely than if he waited to have the subject thrust upon him.

Dry Road Dangers

Even when the road is dry, says Fahnestock, there are possibilities of slipping on loose gravel, dust or sand. "Prevention is better than cure," Fahnestock goes on to say, and a skid prevented is far better than a trip to the repair shop. Tire chains and other forms of non-skid devices are most effective, but they can be greatly assisted by better driving, which is the cheapest form of insurance.

Roads are made very slippery by sudden showers, for then a greasy scum forms, and this is washed away by a long continued rain. Danger from skidding also lurks on oiled roads, and these should be watched, especially if the car comes upon them at a high rate of speed. "The camber, or crown, of a road exerts a tendency for the car to slide sideways into the ditch if driven too near the edge, so it is better to keep toward the center of the road if there is not too much other traffic."

Car Tracks a Menace

Fahnestock then says, "Car tracks may be very slippery when wet, especially if they project much above the surface of the road, and they should be crossed as nearly at right angles as possible. Even chains on the tires may not altogether prevent skidding when turning out of car tracks, and the driver should watch for a sudden swerve as the rear wheels cross the rails."

"When turning curves, the inertia of the car and centrifugal force may cause skidding, but, as these forces are proportional to the square of the speed, a reduction of the speed is all that is necessary to insure safety. If the car rounds a corner at twenty miles an hour, the tendency towards skidding is four times that if the car is only going at the rate of ten miles an hour. It will be seen that slow speed is the most important factor in reducing skidding and also the effects of a skid if it does occur."

Use Brakes Rarely

Too much use of the brake is said

THE big open water carnival for women, to be held by the Philadelphia Turngemeinde, under A. A. U. sanction, at Layette, Pa., will be attended by three women champions. Besides Miss Clare Galligan (lower left), the 100 and 220-yard title holder, there will start in the one mile swim Miss Lucy Freeman (lower right), the middle distance leader, and in the fancy diving contest Miss Josephine Bartlett (upper), invincible in the district at this graceful sport. Miss Freeman swam 440 yards in 7 minutes 47 seconds, in an 84-yard pool a few days ago, and this time makes her a dangerous rival to the best, for she is comparatively faster at the mile than at the quarter. Miss Bartlett has swept everything before her this season, in fancy diving, irrespective of height of board, and should make a winning bid for honors.

by the writer to be one of the most prolific causes of skidding. While running at low speed brakes are not as necessary and control of the car can be attained by using the throttle. Using the throttle is a better plan than the use of the brakes, as there is much less danger of causing the wheels to become locked and in that manner causing them to slide readily in any direction.

Fahnestock attaches great importance to keeping the wheels revolving at approximately the same speed as the car is traveling, if the direction of the car is to be kept under control. "For this reason it is well to keep the clutch engaged if the brakes are used, only disengaging the clutch as the car almost stops, in order to avoid stalling the motor." Many skids are caused by the unequal application of the brakes to the rear wheels. This is caused by one brake doing more work than the other, due to unequal adjustment or lubrication. The tire upon which develops the most work will be strained unduly and the car will have a tendency to swing to that side when the brakes are applied.

Keep Wheels Turning

"If the rear wheels are locked," Fahnestock says, "the braking effort is not as effective as when the wheels are kept turning, for a locked time gathers up the mud in front of it and slides along, instead of cutting through the mud as does a tire that is rolling. The friction of rest also is considerably greater than the friction of motion. When surfaces are at rest, the inequalities of one engage the inequalities of the other, but in the case of sliding friction they slide over without engaging. A wheel that is rolling has the tire at rest in relation to the ground, and so the friction is greater than when the wheel slides.

Approach Slowly

"When a stretch of slippery road is seen ahead the speed of the car should be reduced before the slippery surface is reached, and the car should be allowed to coast across without applying the brakes or making any sudden swerves. Everything should be done gently. This is the keynote of skillful driving. As it is the keynote in direction or velocity that are the most prolific sources of skids, these should always be made as smoothly and gradually as possible. For this reason smooth clutch action and a motor that runs evenly at low speeds are of distinct value as preventives of skidding."

"It is better not to wait until the last moment before turning out for another vehicle, for the sudden swerve may cause a skid and a collision as well, if the road conditions are unfavorable."

Advantage of Slope

The writer states that when turning corners to the right it is sometimes possible to take advantage of the slope of the road, but when turning to the left this camber acts in the wrong direction and has a tendency to cause the car to slide off the road, and the driver should for this reason proceed more slowly. If the car shows a tendency to skid, when turning to the right, despite the crown of the road, traction can sometimes be had by momentarily applying the power.

Brakes should not have to be used in approaching and turning a corner. The speed should be reduced. If the motor moves at the proper speed for running the car, it is not necessary to disengage the clutch. Turns should be made gradually, because the skid is most likely to occur during the first part of a turn. The curve should be made as long and sweeping as possible, Fahnestock says.

Keep Clutch In

"If the rear wheels begin to skid," Motor's expert says, "the clutch should be left in, the brakes should be released, and the front wheels should be turned in the direction in which the rear wheels are sliding. In the case of any skid, the wheels should be kept turning. If the brakes are used at all, they should only be used momentarily and then released in order that the tires may get a fresh grip on the road surface. If the front wheels are turned in the opposite direction they will oppose the motion of the car and act as a pivot around which the rear wheels will tend to swing. If the front wheels start to skid, turn them as if for backing the car. That is, if they skid to the right, turn them to the left."

"Sometimes it is possible, in the case of a front wheel skid, to apply the brakes to the rear wheels and thus utilize the same force that caused the front wheels to skid to cause the rear wheels to skid in the same direction. Fortunately, front wheel skids are infrequent, but sometimes they are caused by one of the front wheels striking an obstruction which swings them to one side."

Intentional Skids

Since tires are worn down by skidding and since it is dangerous, even in racing, few people ever skid intentionally. Fahnestock advises, however, that a few gentle experimental side slips on a spacious asphalt street may serve as a preventative of a nasty unintentional slip at some time in the future. To reduce tire wear, a slippery street, devoid of traffic, should be selected. To skid, the brakes must be applied sharply and the front wheels turned suddenly, causing the rear of the car to swing around. The rear wheels will slide, especially if the rear wheels are locked against turning by the brakes. The more weight at the rear of the car the greater the momentum of the swing. Fahnestock says that this is one reason why light runabout bodies cause less skidding than heavier bodies mounted on the same chassis. If skidding is considered, it is preferable to carry such fairly heavy accessories as spare tires, tire chains and other spares as far forward as possible. Fahnestock concludes his article by saying:

"Thus it is seen that the chief causes of skidding are: Changes in velocity, due to the application of too much power, or the use of the brakes; uneven road surfaces, and the tendency of the car to proceed in the same straight line, especially when rounding corners."

FAVORS MOTOR OIL FROM WESTERN CRUDE

C. T. Hobart, head of the service department of the Ford Company, is quoted in a recent article in the National Petroleum News as favoring an automobile oil made from an asphalt-crude.

"Our experiments were first made with oil made from Pennsylvania crude," said Mr. Hobart. "We found we had better success, however, when we used an oil made from western crude, as it does not thicken up at as low a temperature."

This opinion from an automobile expert is especially interesting at this time, since it bears out the decision of the international jury at the Pan-American International Exposition, which awarded highest honors among automobile oils to Zerolene, an oil made from California asphalt-crude.

RULES 'OWNER' MEANS PROPRIETOR OF CAR

Ruling that the word "owner" in the new Washington vehicle code means proprietor, or the person controlling a motor car, Attorney General W. V. Tanner recently has held that the purchasers of motor cars on conditional sales contract legally can take out licenses to operate cars in their own names. Practically all operators of cars who have purchased in their own name on a conditional bill of sale have gone ahead on this theory and licenses have been issued by the Secretary of State, as it has been impossible for this official to separate this class of applicants.

PLENTY OF ROOM

Ex-President William Howard Taft, while visiting in Portland, Ore., recently used a Cole Eight exclusively for his trips around the city. The ex-President expressed himself as very well satisfied with the performance of the car. "It's one of the first motor cars I ever rode in," he said, "that has room enough in the tonneau for some one beside myself when I'm there."

STUDEBAKER SHIPPING TWO TRAINS DAILY

Fred Ross, sales manager for the William F. Lutz Company, local agents for the Studebaker cars, stated today only four Studebakers are obtainable at present, but he is assured of getting plenty of Sixes soon.

Two Trains Daily

In addition to other shipments Studebaker has adopted the plan of consigning two train loads of the new models each day to their branches, from which the cars are passed along to dealers.

Accordingly, on last Monday two train loads of the new Studebaker models started, one for the Pacific Coast and one for the Atlantic Coast, for distribution among dealers tributary to those branches. Tuesday two more trains were under way for other branches, and on Wednesday another double train load was sent out, this program to continue until each branch house will have received its quota of cars.

The demand for 1916 models has been so great that, although working day and night, the enormous Studebaker plants at Detroit and South Bend have been unable to meet the situation.

"Because of the changes in the new models," said L. J. Ollier, the sales manager, "naturally our production was somewhat delayed. But we are now producing each day more cars than were produced in any one day last year, and every day shows an increase. With the great reduction in prices, while at the same time increasing the quality and power of the new models, we of course expected a large demand for the cars, but really never anticipated our sales reaching their present figure, especially at this early date."

"Nor is there any indication of a slackening up in the buying of cars over the country, so far as reports from our agencies indicate."

"Having attained a production that makes possible the shipment of two train loads of cars daily to branch houses, while at the same time taking care of other agencies to a goodly extent, gives ample assurance of reasonably prompt deliveries to purchasers of the new models."

You Have Never Seen Any "Seconds" In Kelly-Springfield Tires

Because every Kelly-Springfield tire is hand made. Each and every piece of material is scrutinized and subjected to an analysis when it comes into the plant and just as carefully inspected when it goes into process. Every piece is weighed and measured and examined; it has to be right to the 2,000th part of an inch before it goes into the mold, with the result that it comes out a perfect tire—as perfect as care, skill and experience can make it. If there is any doubt about its perfection it doesn't go into the market; it goes back into the melting pot and becomes something else. That's the reason why you never saw a "Second" KELLY-SPRINGFIELD Tire or Tube offered for sale.

Hand-Made KELLY-SPRINGFIELD

Tires may cost a little more than machine-made tires, but when you consider the fact that we have affidavits relating where some KELLY Tires have reeled off 22,000 miles without a blow-out, and that all of them average far and above 5000 miles, the little more they cost dissolves into an unrecognizable entity.

TWO BOYS BACK UP ON STORIES TOLD IN TRIAL FOR SLANDER

Judgment of $500 Given Bird Against Miss Huber Now In Jeopardy

AFFIDAVITS SAY THE TESTIMONY PROMPTED

After Reversing Tale, Woodward Drops to Original; Dorsten Stays Reversed

Yesterday Willard Woodward and Dietrich Dorsten, two Orange boys upon whose testimony Judge Thomas gave P. I. Bird $500 judgment against Miss Bertha Huber for slander, made affidavits that testimony given by them at the trial was untrue. At the trial young Woodward testified that Miss Huber gave him a letter to be delivered to Mrs. Spray. Wednesday the boy made an affidavit that nobody ever gave him such a letter. Today he again reversed, and stood pat on his original story that Miss Huber gave him the letter.

At the trial Dietrich Dorsten testified that Miss Huber gave him a letter to be delivered to Mrs. Kiser. Yesterday he made affidavit that what he had said was not true, that the woman who gave him the affidavit was not Miss Huber. Today he stood pat on his last assertion.

One of the most unusual situations has arisen in the case of P. I. Bird against Miss Bertha Huber that it has been the lot of local court authorities to experience.

Mixed into the tale are statements that by suggestion and insinuation the testimony of the two boys against Miss Huber was developed largely by Mrs. Firman, a private detective employed by P. I. Bird to ferret out the name of the person who had circulated or had aided in circulating letters derogatory to him and his family.

On top of this come other statements that since the trial by threats Mrs. W. H. H. Clayton of Orange has secured from the boys affidavits declaring their testimony against Miss Huber to be utterly false and groundless.

Goes After the Truth
Has pulling and hauling one way and then the other influenced the stories of the two boys?

Certain it is that a strange situation has arisen. Some of those who sat in Judge Thomas' chambers this morning and heard the stories told by the two boys are utterly at sea.

In giving judgment to Miss Huber several weeks ago, Judge Thomas frankly said that he did it upon the testimony of the two boys, aged about 13 years each. In that trial Attorney Clyde Bishop represented Bird, who admittedly had been slandered, and H. C. Head was attorney for Miss Huber. Since then Attorney B. E. Tarter has entered into the case for the defense. A motion for a new trial is to be made, and the defense has until September 20 in which to present it. The defense has presented affidavits of the two main witnesses as reason for the new trial.

The Affidavits

The affidavit made by Dietrich Dorsten follows:

"Dietrich Dorsten, being first duly sworn, deposes and says: I am the same boy who testified at the trial of the above entitled action; that at said trial I testified that I had received from the defendant a certain note or letter, which, under her instructions I had delivered to Mrs. Kiser, which said letter or note was introduced in evidence at said trial. I now say that I never saw the defendant, Bertha Huber, until she was pointed out to me by Mrs. Firman, the detective employed by the plaintiff in this case; that the defendant, Bertha Huber, never at any time delivered to me any note or letter to be delivered to any one; that my testimony at said trial wherein I said that the defendant, Bertha Huber, delivered or gave me a letter to be given or delivered to Mrs. Kiser, was untrue, and that I was mistaken about that matter; that a woman did give me a letter about the time that I testified that Bertha Huber gave me a letter to be delivered to Mrs. Kiser, but that woman looked like a Mexican, and not Bertha Huber."

Woodward's Affidavit

The affidavit made by the Woodward boy follows:

"Willard Woodward, being first duly sworn, deposes and says: I am the same boy who testified at the trial of the above entitled action; that at said trial I testified that I had received from the defendant a certain note or letter, which, under her instructions I had delivered to Mrs. Spray, which said letter or note was introduced in evidence at said trial. I now say that I never saw the defendant, Bertha Huber, until she was pointed out to me by Mrs. Firman, the detective employed by the plaintiff in this case; that the defendant, Bertha Huber, never at any time delivered to me any note or letter to be delivered to any one; that my testimony at said trial wherein I said that the defendant, Bertha Huber, delivered or gave me a letter to be given or delivered to Mrs. Spray, was untrue, and that I was mistaken about that matter; that a woman did give me a letter about the time that I testified that Bertha Huber gave me a letter to be delivered to Mrs. Spray, but that woman looked like a Mexican, and not Bertha Huber."

AMBASSADOR FREDERICK C. PENFIELD, the American representative in Austria, may be sent home by the government of that nation as a result of the request by President Wilson that Austria, however, declares that the request for Dumba's recall will not change the friendly relations between the two governments.

CARRANZA FORCE DEFEATED AT NOGALES

Compelled to Retreat Leaving 350 Killed, 300 Wounded and 650 Prisoners

NOGALES, Sept. 17.—Villa's forces, defending Nogales, Sonora, concentrated the fire of forty machine guns and twenty field guns on the Carranza right wing, shattering it and causing a precipitate retreat. The Carranzistas lost 350 killed, 300 wounded and 650 prisoners.

Villa's Yaquis captured the Carranza trenches on the east bank of the Santa Cruz river, but lost 200 killed, 300 wounded, fifty captured.

The Carranzistas captured three machine guns from Villa forces, two howitzers and a cargo of ammunition.

LOVE IS A WEAKNESS
DECLARES PROFESSOR

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Sept. 17.—Prof. Lillian Jane Martin of Stanford psychology department, declares love a weakness. "It's weakening to fall in love and weakenings are not wanted at Stanford," said Professor Martin.

She advances the following prescription for those desiring to rid themselves of the love habit: "Cut out social events if you have any tendency to fall in love. If affected by certain localities cut out that location. Stay away from the thing which excites love, whatever it may be."

650 PASSENGERS ON BURNING STEAMER ARE TRANSFERRED AT SEA

ASK CONTEMPT WRIT AGAINST MAYOR ROLPH

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 17.—The United Railroads has asked the Supreme Court to issue a writ of mandate directing the Superior Court to issue a contempt citation against Mayor James Rolph, Jr., three members of the Board of Public Works and Thomas A. Cashing, superintendent of the San Francisco Municipal Railways for alleged violation of an injunction issued by the lower court last July, restraining the operation of two municipal lines over certain tracks. The application is an appeal from the recent decision of Superior Judge George E. Crothers, who quashed the contempt charges against the mayor and the members of the board and fixed a nominal fine against Cashing.

EX-PRESIDENT TAFT TO BE IN SANTA ANA TOMORROW; MAY SPEAK AT 11:40 A. M.

Ex-President William Howard Taft will step from the Santa Fe train at the Santa Ana depot tomorrow morning at 11:40 o'clock, and it is probable that he will be prevailed upon to make a short address at the depot at that time.

The ex-President is now at San Diego, and tomorrow he is to return to Los Angeles to deliver an address in the evening. He will reach Santa Ana by train at 11:40 o'clock, and will take an automobile here for a trip across the country on his way to Los Angeles.

Billion Dollar Loan Is Cut to Half That Sum

NEW YORK, Sept. 17.—Regarding the proposed billion dollar loan to Great Britain and France it was said here today that American financiers would only lend half that sum, but the commission which is endeavoring to negotiate the loan was silent on the question. Bankers are of the opinion that in suggesting the gigantic sum of one billion dollars the commission only sought to place itself in such a position that a compromise sum of half a billion might be agreed upon. The men who have come over here representing Great Britain and France, in the opinion of Wall Street, are master players in the game of world finance. Like all good players, they do not betray by their words what their intentions are, nor do they place all their cards on the table at once, as Wall Street views it. Consequently, it is expected that there will be many more developments before it will be seen what they are really striving for and whether they will win. The secretary of the commission last night gave out a statement the conclusion of which said: "As to any actual negotiations covering a proposed loan, it is almost too much to say that they are actually under way as yet, but so much has already been accomplished in ascertaining the exact facts of the situation that it is hoped that the time for some definite statement as to progress will soon arrive."

This morning it was learned that Rockefeller, Jr., was seriously considering lending several million dollars. It is understood that straight British and French bonds will be offered as security without collateral. The commission which will be allowed the syndicate which is negotiating the loan will be half of one per cent, making the interest rate 5 1/2 per cent.

Rockefeller, Sr., Will Not Consider the Loan

(Copyright 1915 by United Press)
CLEVELAND, Sept. 17.—John D. Rockefeller, Sr., has definitely, positively and finally declared that he will take no part in the loaning of money to carry on the conflict in Europe. In an interview obtained with the world's richest man, by the United Press today, it was learned that the oil king has been offered opportunities to enrich himself further by lending money to the warring nations but has absolutely refused.

"Are you expecting a call from the commission of European bankers now in New York to arrange a billion dollar war loan for the Allies?" he was asked.

"No," he replied, emphatically. "They know I wouldn't consider it. Then, after a pause, he added: "Both England and France asked me for loans but they were refused."

He was again meditatively silent for a moment and then exclaimed fervently: "This war is awful. Don't you think it is awful?"

With reference to the Wall Street report that the financing of the war is enabling Morgan to take from Rockefeller the title of "the richest man in the world," this question was put to Rockefeller:

"What effect will the loan have on conditions if Morgan negotiates the billion dollar loan for the Allies?"

The shrewd smile of the sagacious business man played over his face. Then, instead of answering directly, he recited:

"A wise old owl lived in an oak, the more he saw the less he spoke; the less he spoke the more he heard. Why can't we all be like that bird?"

Must Quit Work or Die

VIENNA SENDS DEATH NOTICE
PITTSBURGH, Sept. 17.—Despite Austrian assurances that the government is not seeking to meddle in American labor affairs or cripple American industries, Austro-Hungarian newspaper published in the United States have printed official warnings that death will be meted out to Austrians and Hungarians working in munitions plants. The Austrian Consul here has admitted that he issued the death warnings on instructions from Vienna. The warning follows:

"The Imperial Royal Foreign Office has empowered the Imperial Royal Austro-Hungarian Embassy to inform all Austro-Hungarian subjects, also residents of Bosnia and Herzegovina, that inasmuch as they are working in factories that are manufacturing guns and supplies for the enemy, which conflicts with the meaning of section 327, Austro-Hungarian army laws, they become guilty as accessories before the fact in working against the army strength of their country. This provides a penalty of ten or twenty years imprisonment, and, if the circumstances warrant, the death penalty. In case the subjects return to their country they make themselves liable to the most severe punishment of the law."

WHEN Dr. Konstantin T. Dumba, ambassador from Austria, whose recall has been requested by the President of the United States, gives up his office, he will leave in charge temporarily, Prince Alfred Za Hohenlohe-Schillingsfurst and Baron Erich Zwiadinek. On the left is Baron Trich Zwiadinek, the other is the Prince. This photograph of them was taken at the summer headquarters of the embassy at Lenox, Mass.

Fuel and Ammunition Arriving In Plenty and Warehouses Filled

NEW YORK, Sept. 17.—Dr. H. C. Lainevalle, of Washington, who arrived at Archangel aboard the Russian liner Kirs, states that Russia, which lacked coal and ammunition, is now assembling fresh supplies. Said Lainevalle:

"Archangel warehouses are filled with shells and boxes of ammunition, and the streets are piled high with supplies."

He found many evidences of discontent on account of Russian defeats. Trainloads of fuel consigned to Grand Duke Nicholas before Warsaw failed to arrive at the critical period and the same situation prevailed everywhere, he exclaimed.

WHAT CALIFORNIA FOLKS SAY.

Pasadena, Cal.—"I want to extend to you my heartfelt thanks for the benefits derived from the use of your medicines, also for the kind and good advice obtained. I am a proud mother."

"I had been a great sufferer; three times I was given up to die—the last time being four months ago. I doctored with several doctors but obtained no relief. Was told that an operation would effect a cure, so I submitted to one, but this proved, like all the medicines I had taken—not beneficial. I obtained, and started at once taking 'Favorite Prescription'."

"Four months ago the doctors and nurse said it would be a year or more before I would be able to do my housework, and, of course, I thought so myself as I was not able to walk across the floor for several weeks. I am now able to do all my housework and to care for my children and I do not feel as though I could ever thank you enough for the benefits I have received.—Mrs. MABELLE KIPP, 484 South Pasadena Ave."

AMERICAN BOYS BRAVE THEIR BODIES TO BULLETS

More Than Two Thousand Enrolled In Various Divisions British Army

LONDON, Sept. 17.—Between fifty and sixty American youngsters have been "rescued" from the British army by the American Embassy. It was learned today. The embassy has only interfered in cases where parents of the boys have appealed for its intervention and those restored are but part of the number of ardent American minors who have enlisted under the guise of Canadians.

Many of the youths whose soldier life has been interrupted by Uncle Sam still remain in England. In some cases their parents are unable to send them money to buy civilian clothing and return to America. No fund at the embassy provides for such expenditures. Relief societies in London are caring for some of them. An American steamship line has agreed to take three each voyage, provided they will work their way to New York. Inquiry at the embassy emphasized the importance of sending funds from America if parents wish the government to reclaim their sons from Europe's battlefields. When the American authorities find the boys they are, of course, garbed in khaki. Their citizen clothing has been left behind. Funds are needed to buy new raiment. Money is also necessary for their keep and to send them to Liverpool where they may take their turn at work on an American liner. The embassy is making the best of a bothersome situation.

Unofficial records show that more than 2000 Americans are enrolled in the various divisions of the British army, mainly the Canadian contingent. Over 100 are dead on the battlefields of Flanders.

COUNTY BOARDS MAY PURCHASE AUTOS FOR THE SEVERAL OFFICERS

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 17.—Attorney General Webb has given an opinion in reply to a communication from Barclay McQueen, district attorney for Kern county, in which he states that the county boards of supervisors have authority to purchase automobiles for the use of county officials in the discharge of their duties and that the supervisors must pay all necessary expense of the district attorney in gathering evidence in criminal cases.

The question involved has been brought up from other counties of the state. The opinion says in part: "Subdivision 9 of Section 4041 of the Political Code authorizes supervisors to purchase, acquire, conduct, equip and maintain all necessary motor vehicles and other machinery necessary or proper to facilitate the performance of work in the county."

The statute allows the supervisors or any other county officers their traveling expenses while engaged in performance of their duties, and it is not improper for the county to furnish such officers with autos if, in the opinion of the Board of Supervisors, such action is necessary to facilitate the performance of such duties."

President Wilson and the National Defense

FROM THE CHRISTIAN SCIENCE MONITOR.

As shown by his communications to Congress, his speeches, his letters to heads of appropriate departments—all of his public utterances on the question—President Wilson's record on national defense question is clear and consistent. As our Washington correspondence has pointed out, the President's letters to the war and navy secretaries, dated July 21 last, asking them to assemble facts on the subject preparatory to a conference with him, indicate no deviation from his former policy, although circumstances had arisen which might have justified a change in his attitude. It is a matter of no ordinary significance that a seeming crisis in the international affairs of the country did not, apparently, affect in the slightest his general position with regard to preparedness. In this connection it is very much to the point that the passage in his address to Congress last Dec. on the defense question shall be quoted. "I turn away from the subject," he said. "It is not new. There is no new need to discuss it. We shall not alter our attitude toward it because some amongst us are nervous and excited. We shall easily and sensibly agree upon a policy of defense. The question has not changed its aspects because the times are not normal. Our policy will not be for an occasion. It will be conceived as a permanent and settled thing, which we will pursue at all seasons, without haste and after a fashion perfectly consistent with the peace of the world, the abiding friendship of states, and the unhampered freedom of all with whom we deal."

This may be set down as the national defense platform of the government of the United States. Subsequent statements by the President, in addresses, interviews or letters, have not changed a word of that platform be hazarded by such a course.

Violet Dulce Perfume and Toilet Preparations

In the south of France, near the border of Italy, there springs in early January the Parma Violet, one of the finest and sweetest that blows. It is loveliest in the shade of the olive trees. The peasants who gather this violet for us go out soon after midnight to pluck it while it is still wet with dew. Before dawn, tons upon tons of these violets are heaped up in the distilleries. By noon they have been converted into the concentrated essence that comes over the seas to us. To make an ounce of this essence, upon which our Violet Dulce is based, tons of violets are used.

Violet Dulce Toilet Goods are sold to you under our positive guarantee that if you do not find them entirely satisfactory, you can have your money back. This guarantee is good in any Rexall Store, of which there are more than 7000, one leading drugist in each important city and town in the United States, Canada and Great Britain. AUGUST OIL OUTPUT SHOWS A HEAVY DECLINE

Potentially the Decrease Compared With July Is 3000 Barrels a Day

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 17.—Oil production in California in the month of August disclosed a shortage for the month of 400,000 barrels as indicated in the excess of shipments over output. Figures compiled by the statistical bureau of the Independent Oil Producers' Agency show a total production for the month of 7,680,047 barrels. The increase in the latter, which amounted to nearly 15,000 barrels as compared with the previous month, is ascribed principally to the greatly increased traffic to the two expositions. Production, on the other hand, receiving no stimulus from the bringing in of large new wells, fell off about 2000 barrels daily, a nominal natural decline. Taking into account the release of 1000 barrels daily of shut-in production which took place, this falling off would amount to potentially 3000 barrels daily.

The shortage for the month of August more than evens up by far the surplus which occurred during the month of July, and helps along that depletion of stocks which was apparent in April and May, when shipments also exceeded the output. However, stocks still remain nearly 1,000,000 barrels larger than January 1 last, which represents the net surplus for the year. The present total stocks are 59,252,680 barrels.

Decline in Shipments Predicted

Conservative oil men fear a rather sharp decline in shipments at the end of the year when the expositions close, and therefore counsel producers against feeling too much elated over the present shortage. This probability is offset, though, by the rather steady drop in production, which is now taking place from month to month.

Daily average production is now nearly 25,000 less than for 1914, while shipments last month rose above the level of average shipments in 1914. The average of shipments for the present year is, however, considerably lower than for 1914, although not as large a falling off, by any means, is revealed, as in the case of production.

Producing Wells Increase

The number of producing wells, despite the decline in output, was greater by seventy during August than in July. Drilling wells also showed an increase—in this case amounting to eighteen. Thirteen less wells were the cause of the greater number of producing wells was owing to the release of shut-in oil.

The gross production in the Fullerton-Whittier field for August was 1,053,375 barrels, a daily average production of 33,980 barrels compared with a daily average of 34,725 in July and a daily average of 37,974 barrels in 1914.

A PINE WHOOPING COUGH REMEDY

Mothers, Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey is just the remedy for your children's cold ailments. The fact is that pine is a quick enemy of cold conditions. Its qualities loosen the mucous in the throat, soothe the lungs and open up the air passages. The combination of honey, soothing and pleasant, with the loosening pine quality makes this an ideal cough remedy for children. Each passing year brings for it new friends. A family of growing children cannot afford to be without it. 25c a bottle.

D. W. McDANNALD'S ADVENTURES AT THE SAN FRANCISCO FAIR

ORANGE COUNTY PUBLICITY BUREAU AT PANAMA-PACIFIC IN-TERNATIONAL EXPOSITION, San Francisco, Sept. 9.—Thursday was the biggest and the busiest day of them
all. This statement applies with especial emphasis to the California building. They began drawing on our fund of information early in the day, and the run kept up until the tills were empty. I answered questions until my mind was in a haze, like a full moon showing under an eclipse. And our literature, well, it just walked away.
One hundred and eighty thousand
was the day's total, and we entertained until 11 o'clock. Tired, yes, it was some effort to climb the weary incline after the day's work was over.
It took the parade nearly four hours to pass a given point.

The Native Sons and their Sisters
arranged the program, and it worked with the accuracy and precision of a Seth Thomas clock. So far as the average intellect could penetrate the arrangement and its execution there was not a flaw, not a step out of time.

And such harmony. I don't believe there was one person in all that multitude who carried a grouch, or said to his neighbor, "You're another." I looked over the grounds carefully next morning, and I never found a chip that some one had dropped from their shoulder. Harmony was the watchword, pure and simple.

One hundred and eighty thousand
are a lot of folks, and if Orange county hadn't furnished fifty thousand for the occasion, there wouldn't have been so many. I have found out one thing, the census enumerators are not at all reliable. The latest official figures I have on the subject gives the county only 35,000 population. Now, if there wasn't more than that many here
Thursday, and most of them native born, then they double filed on me, I pinned on Orange County badges till
I got color blind, and couldn't tell (A.
C.) Black from (C. E.) White.

Every man, and boy in the state,
big enough, with a willingness to match, carried some kind of an instrument to make a noise, and somebody said, "Let there be noise," and there was. The raucous sounds they made and called it "music" would have stopped a saw mill there been one in hearing distance.

In the afternoon Arthur Straley of Fullerton came in and beguiled me over to the ballroom to watch the Tensichorean festivities for awhile,
but the crowd was so dense we could only see a few heads bobbing around.
That ballroom reminded me of a bee hive at swarming time.

Yesterday Dr. C. C. Violet of Garden Grove came to the booth, and during the brief visit I called the learned man's attention to my decaying
ahuacates and asked him what remedy
I could apply. He beamed learnedly over his gold rimmed glasses, felt of the fruit as if timing its pulse, and then said, "Replace it with a fresh supply." Then, from pure force of habit he charged me a dollar for the advice.

A man who has charge of one of the departments here said to me, "The people of your county should feel proud when they learn the only vegetables on exhibition here from Southern California are from Orange County." If the people in the county will cooperate with me a little, I will be able to capture a lot of medals before the fair closes. From advance information, coming from a source absolutely reliable, I learn we have already been awarded three medals of honor and several gold medals.

Yours truly,
D. W. McDANNALD.

IN THE JUSTICE COURT

DETERMINED TO HALT DRUNKEN AUTO PILOTS

Sheriff Jackson Asserts He Will Arrest All Who Violate Motor Law

Those who, while in a state of intoxication, operate motor vehicles on the highways of Orange county had better beware Sheriff C. E. Jackson.
The Sheriff is absolutely determined to do his utmost to bring to justice all those whom he learns have violated
that section of the State Motor Vehicle Law, which says that automobiles shall not be driven by intoxicated persons.

Yesterday afternoon at about 3
o'clock Sheriff Jackson received word from Tustin that a roadster appearing to be driven by a drunken man had passed through that town. The roadster had stopped at Tustin and a man,
also intoxicated, had been put out of the car and a fight between the latter
man and another occupant of the car had ensued.

The Sheriff dispatched Motorcycle Officer Ballard after the roadster. Ballard chased the car and near Galivan arrested the driver, B. C. Case, who gave his address as being at Portland, Ore.

Sheriff Jackson went to Tustin and arrested the man who had been ejected from the automobile at Tustin. This man gave the name of Harry Eli-liott. Elliott, according to the testimony given in Justice Cox's court this morning by Sheriff Jackson, used loud, profane and abusive language both during and after the time he was put out of the automobile. Elliott was found guilty of disturbing the peace,
and was fined $10. In default of money with which to pay his fine, Elliott was committed to the county jail.

Case, the driver of the automobile, furnished $100 bail yesterday afternoon, after pleading not guilty to the charge of driving an automobile while intoxicated. His trial was fixed for September 21, at 10 a. m.

According to the story told by Eli-liott this morning he got into the machine with Case at Anaheim yesterday afternoon for the purpose of showing Case the way to Santa Ana. The men in the auto were strangers to Eli-liott. Elliott admitted he had been drinking. He said that after the automobile arrived at the corner of Chapman avenue and Main street he remembered nothing more. He said he did not remember having been ejected
from the car at Tustin, remembered
nothing of having gotten into a fight with one of the occupants of the automobile, and remembered nothing of having used abusive language to the Sheriff.

Cut Corner

William Palmer pleaded guilty to a charge of cutting a corner and was fined $5, which he paid. The complaint was sworn to by Officer Pond.

Charge Embezzlement

Earl Lamar, known also as M. J.
Lamar, has been charged with embezzling an automobile belonging to E. T.
Hendee. Hendee put Lamar in charge of a jitney running between Santa Ana and Long Beach, and says that Lamar skipped out with the machine. He also alleges that Lamar sold the machine for $500. Even after the sale was made, Hendee says that he got frequent cards from Lamar saying everything was moving along all right.

BROTHER OF DUMBA FOUND AS SECTION HAND ON RAILWAY

MISSOULA, Mont., Sept. 17.—There is one man in America who is as much incensed over the recalling of Dumba as is that individual himself,
and this person is Dumba's brother.
This brother, who has been in America for thirty-two years, has just made his identity known. For a number of years he has been in the employ of the Northern Pacific railroad as a common section hand. It has only been learned that he is a brother of the Austrian diplomat since Uncle Sam requested the government, whom as ambassador he was the envoy, to recall him that he made known the fact of his relationship. He naturally denounces the action of Secretary
Lansing in the recall of his brother.

CHICKENS IN TEXAS LIKE THE WHITE WAY

DALLAS, Sept. 17.—Oak Cliff has added a chicken cabaret to its night life. City influences are blamed. The country chicken hunts its roost fully half an hour before twilight, and stays there. But the poultry inhabitants of Oak Cliff have scandalized
the little suburb with their nocturnal carrying on. A curiosity-seeking chanteuse of a hitherto sedate family of Rhode Island Reds is blamed for the great change in feathered domestic circles. Peeping through the window of his room from a few nights ago, he was amazed to discover that the yard and street were as brightly illuminated as in the day. Street cars rumbled past, automobiles chugged up the hill, the neighbor's collie trotted out to meet pedestrians, and cats yowled and scampered along the fences. All this was life to the chan-teuse. He hopped from his perch and joined the throng. Out in the bright light at the corner, that rooster found a wonderful supply of dainties. There were millions of the most delectable bugs he had ever tasted. The next night the whole family adjourned to the corner. The news spread to other chicken houses. Now every night sees a great assemblage of feathered rounders devouring bugs, promenading, flirting and generally behaving
as respectable chickens should not.

THE POOR RAILROADS!

Mr. Taft has been weeping in his California speeches over the sad, sad fate of the railroads because the State of California, especially, and some other states and the United States in general have seen fit to enact regulatory legislation. To hear Mr. Taft you'd think the railroads were all headed for bankruptcy. But the railroad statements tell quite another story.

The Southern Pacific shows a remarkable gain in passenger earnings. It began in June when the count of passengers carried jumped from 400,000 in that month last year to 1,500,000 for the same month this year. An even higher rate of increase prevailed in the months of July and August. The month of June showed an increase of net earnings amounting to $586,277, but these figures were dwarfed in July when the net earnings were increased by $1,316,906, as compared with July last year.

Even when all the other railroads were showing a decrease of earnings the Santa Fe kept steadily onward, showing gains. It is today perhaps the most prosperous railway system in America. The July report, for instance, shows $501,814 increase in the net earnings. President Ripley attributes the strong position of the Santa Fe to the fact largely that the system has done no financing at high rates of interest.

"Most of our money," he says, "is 4 per cent money. If we had to borrow today we would be compelled to pay 5 per cent or higher. We are doing no financing and have none in sight."

Of course the fact that there are two expositions in California helps out the railroads. But it's good to notice that even the railroads are making money.

THE PEPSIN FAD

It is only a few years since pepsin was widely and freely prescribed in all sorts of gastric disorders. Today this custom is practically discontinued, and even the ubiquitous chewing gum no longer has its sales increased by the device of including the alleged presence of pepsin among its claims. The reason for this decline in the popularity of pepsin as a remedy in digestive disturbances, according to The Journal of the American Medical Association, is perhaps to be found in the fact that the administration of pepsin alone rarely produces any curative effects. Recent observations in the laboratories of the University of Chicago have indicated the enormous "factor of safety" which the human organism seems to possess in respect to the pepsin of the gastric secretion. An adult normal person, if hungry, may secrete from 600 to 700 c.c. (20 to 23 ounces) of gastric juice on an average palatable dinner, or about 1500 c.c. of gastric juice in twenty-four hours. Carlson has found by actual experiment with the product of human secretion that 1 c.c. of the juice will readily digest 10 gm. (150 grains) of finely divided boiled egg-white in three hours. From such data it is easy to calculate that the normal human stomach secretes pepsin far in excess of the actual needs of digestion, or at any rate in excess of what is required under ordinary conditions.

GOVERNOR JOHNSON STATES THE
CASE FOR THE NON-PARTISAN LAW

FROM THE RIVERSIDE PRESS.

The best argument in favor of the non-partisan election law is Governor Johnson himself. Though he was the nominee of a party that stood third in the list in the state registration, he was elected by an overwhelming majority because he received the votes of all parties. The state registration gave the Republicans an overwhelming majority, so far as registration goes; but that party not only failed to elect its candidate for governor but failed to elect any other candidate except secretary of state. This again demonstrates the fact that in the last state election the voting was on non-partisan lines. In view of his situation, it is interesting to know what Governor Johnson, who is virtually a non-partisan executive, has to say on the issue. This is the argument which he advanced in his biennial message and the campaign for the approval of the law will produce no more effective statement in its favor:

The advance to non-partisanship in our state will be neither an extended nor a difficult step. The political units that compose the state have all adopted non-partisanship in the election of their officials.

The desideratum of all government is efficiency—to obtain honest and able officials devoted exclusively to the government. To govern well is to govern for all, not for a party or a class. To act in official capacity should be to act solely for the benefit of the state, and that official acts best who forgets every other consideration but the interest of the state.

Long ago this lesson was learned by cities. In California, as in many states, all of our cities elect their officials without regard to party affiliations at all, and without party designation. Why? Because experience taught these cities that thus they obtained better officials and greater eficiency. It is within the memory of all of us that these cities formerly elected their officials, city clerks, and the like—because of their partisan affiliations. Progress in city government swept from existence this old system, that had obtained so long, and its destruction was necessary in order that the best government be obtained.

Recently the counties of the state adopted the plan that has been in vogue in cities, and elected all of the county officials without party designation. Inquiry among the counties has demonstrated that this method has met with almost universal approval, and it is hoped that the counties, in service, will be benefited just as the cities, in service, have been benefited.

We now suggest applying the principle to the state as well, so that candidates for state positions will come before the people upon what they themselves are, not upon what their ancestors were; that they will ask the suffrages of the electorate upon their record or lack of record, their merits or their demerits, rather than upon the blind partisanship of themselves or their forefathers.

There is nothing thus presented to you that seeks to destroy or even to affect political parties nationally. The government of the state has become now a matter of efficient business management and efficient business management may be best obtained without politics.

The one argument most frequently heard against the course we suggest, is that parties stand for definite policies, and that they are necessary therefore, to preserve or to adopt some definite governmental tenets and that for the adoption or failure to adopt these tenets responsibility is fixed upon the party in power. The fallacy of this argument is found within the memories of all of us. In the state government today, none holds a particular party responsible for any specific act. All hold responsible the individual who is supposed to have caused the act. In the government of municipalities no party ever was held responsible for the acts of its agents who were officials, but the individuals were held responsible. In the government of the county today for the specific act of an official no party is held responsible, but the individual himself must answer to the people.

While political economists may often speak of the necessity of parties, there is none but decries blind party worship. Blind partisanship is ever the refuge of the unworthy politically, and it is he who dares not to exploit himself or his record that insists upon ignorant, unyielding and unwavering party fealty. Of late years we have emerged from the darkness and we have emancipated our cities and our counties. It is our fond hope that in this, as in other steps of progress, we may point the way for our sister states.

ALL OVER THE STATE

Forty-five thousand bales is the probable total of the cotton crop in the Imperial Valley this year, which is 5000 bales less than last year. Picking of the volunteer cotton is well under way.

Joe Thomas, a thirteen-year-old prisoner in the new county jail at Santa Rosa, dug his way out of that bastle with no other implement than a soup spoon.

On land in the Imperial Valley Irrigation district assessed at $50 per acre, has been levied a tax of 37 cents an acre, the tax to wipe out a loan from a Los Angeles bank and provide funds for running the district the coming year. The tax will provide $153,324.

Mts. San Bernardino and Greyback were covered with snow Wednesday by the first snow of the season.

Councilman Claude Davidson of San Bernardino, sick for several months, was carried to the council chamber in that city in order to vote for an ordinance calling a bond election October 18, to decide on voting $210,000 bond issue for a city hall site, a city hall and an auditorium. Then he was rushed to his home in an auto and carried to his bed.

Edwin and Edward Stanton, twin brothers, celebrated their 86th birthday this week at the home of the latter's daughter in Los Angeles, Mrs. Ida F. Brown. Edwin lives with his daughter, Mrs. E. R. Yundt, in Pomona. They were born in Martinsburg, New York. Each was the father of four children.

Plans for the big Apple Show to be held in Yucalpa in November are nearing completion.

A. B. Hill, owner of a large peach acreage near Pomona, declared that he let 200 tons of excellent peaches rot on the ground this year and lost $4000 as a consequence. He also declared that 10,000 tons of peaches rotted in the territory tributary to Pomona this year. He urges a co-operative canning plant and peach growers' association.

Thomas Miller, colored, found guilty of the murder of Bert Baker in Santa Barbara county, has been sentenced to hang Friday, December 10. This is the third death sentence ever given in the Santa Barbara superior court.

Pomona will ship 6000 chickens, 10,000 pounds, to a San Francisco produce firm early next week.

A municipal hotel, at which beds will be furnished the unemployed at 10 cents apiece and soup and bread served at 5 cents a plate, is the plan launched yesterday by the Ontario woman's Christian Temperance Union.

H. H. Linville, aged 54, wealthy resident of Highland, dropped dead on the shore of Little Bear Lake, in the San Bernardino mountains, as he was baiting the hook on a fishing line for his young son.

The warmest campaign ever waged in the student body of the Whittier High school resulted in the election of Joseph Buckmaster, senior, as president of the student body organization, and Miss Hazel Helmer, also a senior, as secretary.

Francisco Manriquez was instantly killed and Samin Ayala seriously injured when two Santa Fe hand cars came together near Barstow.

Postal inspectors have sanctioned a move of the Long Beach post office to newer and more convenient quarters. The business men of that city pay the rent for the building.

Whittier will observe Community Betterment Day October 3, according to announcement made by Mayor

EFFORT TO UNITE THE WESTERN STATES FOR SENATOR CUMMINS

FROM THE DES MOINES (IOWA) REGISTER AND LEADER.

The Register has already sufficiently outlined a situation justifying the action of the Republican leaders who have definitely entered Senator Cummins in the race for the Republican nomination for the presidency.

The five states to first select their delegates to the convention next year are Minnesota, the two Dakotas, Nebraska and Iowa, and each of these states will determine its choice at a primary election at which the people will vote directly.

Nobody has suggested a reason why these five states should not unite in the support of the Senator, with sufficient unanimity to give impetus to the call for a Western candidate, to powerfully influence the action of the state further west and to favorably affect public opinion everywhere.

If Minnesota, the Dakotas and Nebraska will join with Iowa, and we mention these states because they are the first to officially announce their choice, it will be easy for every state west of the Mississippi to fall into line, and much easier than it otherwise could be for states further west to listen to the claim that the party will be stronger not only in the campaign, but in the administration of affairs at Washington, if a Western candidate is nominated.

There will be no question of Senator

Cummins' personal fitness. There will be no question of the part he has played in the politics of the past ten or fifteen years. Everybody is going to give and take a great deal, and everybody will acquiesce in the nomination of any man whose candidacy would afford a reasonable prospect of a reunited Republican support. The Senator is able, he possesses the necessary quality of leadership.

The only question will be the question of breaking a generation-long precedent of coming west of the Mississippi, an innovation the Eastern states may be pardoned for, shuddering at, but an innovation that must be made some time, and many believe that must be made next year if we are to get in the personnel of ticket and in the interpretation that personnel will put upon the platform, the sort of combination that will win.

In any event there has never been so much attention given to the West and to Western sentiment, and the West has in the Senator a man to rally about, who can bring to his support the radical progressives of the country, and who at the same time can be accepted with good grace by the stalwarts because he has never cut the ties that have held him to Republican principles and in the Republican organization.

VACATION DAYS O'ER

Enthusiasm Spurs a Resumption of Club Activities

With the close of vacation days, the various clubs and societies of Santa Ana, which have discontinued their meetings since June, have resumed their work and good times with renewed enthusiasm.

The Ebell Society has planned to accomplish much during the coming year, several of the sections holding their opening meetings this month.

A meeting of the executive board is called for Monday afternoon at the home of the Ebell president, Mrs. C. F. Crose, and all wishing to join the society should have their applications in by that meeting.

Today Mrs. E. S. Gilbert was hostess to the First Economics section; Monday Mrs. George Smith will entertain the First Travel Section at the Country Club, and other departments of the Ebell will soon announce the dates of the first meetings of the fall.

The Civics Club has already called a meeting of its board and will hold its first regular meeting October second.

The Woman's Club has been graciously invited to meet this year at the home of its president, Mrs. P. L. Toole, the first meeting to be held October fifth.

The Entre Nous and Country Club will give a round of festivities this winter and the card clubs will hold their meetings with regularity although bridge whist and five hundred has been a popular pastime for the members who enjoyed the innovation of being entertained at seaside resorts during the warm months.

The Tustin Twelve has resumed its delightful social gatherings and among other congenial little clubs that are planning on a series of good times during the winter season are the North Side Club, Happy Hours, Merry Hearts, Double P, at N. Seal, Hainarajacund, M. M. U., and Progressive Rook Club.

Lawn Festival Soon

The ladies of the First Presbyterian Aid Society met Wednesday afternoon and with renewed enthusiasm, took up the year's work after their summer vacation. There was a good attendance and the president, Mrs. E. L. Morrison, at some length, outlined plans for doing more efficient work this coming year.

Next Wednesday evening, September 22, the ladies will hold their annual "Dollar" social, which this year will take the form of a lawn festival, to be held at the home of Mrs. W. A. Zimmerman, 912 North Main street. A nice program is being arranged in addition to the entertainment furnished by the ladies recounting how they earned their dollar.

All members of the church and congregation are cordially invited to be present. The gentlemen will be allowed the privilege of giving a dollar and telling how they earned it. Refreshments of ice cream and home-made cake will be served.

PRETTY AFFAIR

Birthday of Miss Fernie Murphy Is Very Happily Celebrated

Miss Fernie Murphy was the honoree yesterday afternoon at the merriest birthday party imaginable, the affair celebrating her tenth natal day.

Mrs. Murphy had arranged a series of entertaining games for the young people, the happy afternoon being concluded with a dainty birthday spread. The dining room presented a pretty scene as the lads and lassies gathered round the table, centered by a beautiful white-frosted birthday cake decorated with ten twinkling pink candles. A shower of pink crepe paper streamers, entwined with smilax, formed a canopy over this center of attraction, the ribbons being draped from the chandeliers. An abundance of delicious ice cream was served with the lovely cake.

Among those who remembered Miss Fernie with pretty gifts and joined in the celebration were Iris Head, Ruth Findly, Boyd Joplin, Blanch Kelly, Elizabeth Wright, Fern Murphy, Marie Cummings, Clifton Head, George Wilson, Loren Murphy.

Meet In Attractive New Hall

Santa Ana Lodge of the Fraternal Brotherhood held its regular meeting for the first time last evening in its new home in the new and attractive hall, just completed, in the Finley Block.

At the business meeting several applications were elected to membership and arrangements were made for a big class initiation of new members at the next meeting.

After the business meeting and under the terms of the campaign now going on, the gentlemen were the entertainers. The very efficient committee, composed of Messrs. Charles Berry, Theo. Rueter, James Ryan, L. E. Harvey, Charles Birge and Floyd Turner, in addition to presenting a very fine program of readings, were the authors of an original shadow play, entitled "When Cupid's Dart Failed to Pierce," this being a laughable burlesque on the doings of some of the prominent professional and business members of the lodge, followed by a social good time.

The entertainment at next meeting will be in charge of the ladies, and from a few confidential pointers given the writer the gentlemen have a big surprise in waiting for them on this occasion.

Wed in Los Angeles

An interesting wedding occurred Wednesday evening in Los Angeles when Miss Gladys Freeman, daughter of R. L. Freeman of North Olive street, Orange, became the bride of James H. Carroll of Douglas, Arizona.

The nuptial scene took place at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. M. R. Berry, 2829 West Twenty-ninth Place, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Russell F. Trapp, pastor of the First Christian Church of Los Angeles, of which the bride is a member.

The ceremony was witnessed by members of the Freeman family, Mrs. Arthur Small of Santa Ana, Mrs. Jess Ainsworth of Orange and Mrs. Ed Burns of Anaheim and other intimate girl friends of the bride who is so well known in Santa Ana, Orange and Anaheim.

The bride was married in a beautiful tailored going-away costume and they left for San Francisco, where they will spend a two weeks' honeymoon, after which they will return to Orange for a week's stay at the home of R. N. M. U. GATHERING

Club Members Join In Miscellaneous Shower For Popular Bride

The members of the N. M. U. girls were entertained last evening at the cozy apartments of Miss Zoe Vanderlip, the rooms being brightened by bouquets of choice asters in softly harmonizing shades of lavender and pink.

Needlework, crochet and tatting progressed almost as rapidly as the conversation which waned not for a minute, as the club meetings, which come but once in two weeks, mean such a congenial reunion.

A pleasing feature of last night's gathering was the shower given for one of the season's most popular brides, Mrs. Charles Lowell Cotant, who was formerly Miss Eileen Tubbs. The courtesy came as a pleasing surprise to the honoree when, during the needlework session a large, gaily decorated market basket, lined with lavender and pink and tied with rosettes of ribbon in the pastel shades, was placed at her feet. Upon untying the daintily wrapped packages, she found many useful gifts, among them being an electric iron, a lovely blue and gold china tea set, vases, an array of shining kitchen utensils and other articles that will soon find a place in her pretty new home.

Pleasantly concluding the hours, Miss Vanderlip assisted by Miss Alice Wasser served a delicious collation. The pink and lavender shades were observed in the brick ice cream, adorned with candied violets, and in the mints, cakes and nut cups, canopied with tiny Japanese parasols.

Among those present were Mrs. C. L. Cotant, Mrs. Vanderlip; Misses Louise Cotant and Louise Tubbs, guests of the club; Misses Frances and Gertrude Potts, Alice Wasser, Joy Baker, Adeline Hill, Marguerite Wallace, Mary Whipple, Zelma Sturgeon and Zoe Vanderlip.

Miss Wallace will entertain the club at its next meeting.

GASOLINE OVERFLOWS, CAUSES SMALL BLAZE

A hot muffler, or exhaust pipe, is believed to have caused the ignition of gasoline overflowing from a tank on an automobile being filled at the A. T. Waggener filling station at the southwest corner of Second and Main streets yesterday evening. The automobile is the property of C. E. Nelson. Nelson misjudged the amount of gas the tank would hold. When the gas overflowed it suddenly burst into flame. The fire was put out with fire extinguishers before any damage was done. An alarm was turned in but the fire was out by the time the firemen arrived.

Coughs and Colds Not to Be Neglected

Anyone will realize the seriousness of neglecting a cold if he observes results of such neglect among his acquaintances. How often have you heard, "He caught cold, didn't do anything for it and it turned into"—then some dreaded disease is named!

Ordinary colds yield to prompt treatment at the beginning. That is why every family should be supplied with a reliable cough medicine—one that will heal raw and inflamed surfaces, loosen the phlegm, allay irritation, ease the hoarseness and stop the tickling sensation in the throat that does not permit one to sleep. Foley's Honey and Tar Compound is invaluable for relief of coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough, tickling in throat, tightness or soreness, grippe or bronchial coughs. It is healing, soothing, efficient and pleasant.

MRS. LYON'S ACES AND PAINS

Have All Gone Since Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Terre Hill, Pa.—"Kindly permit me to give you my testimonial in favor of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. When I first began taking it I was suffering from female troubles for some time and had almost all kinds of aches—pains in lower part of back and in sides, and pressing down pains. I could not sleep and had no appetite. Since I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound the aches and pains are all gone and I feel like a new woman. I cannot praise your medicine too highly."—Mrs. Augustus Lyon, Terre Hill, Pa.

It is true that nature and a woman's work has produced the grandest remedy for woman's ills that the world has ever known. From the roots and herbs of the field, Lydia E. Pinkham, forty years ago, gave to womankind a remedy for their peculiar ills which has proved more efficacious than any other combination of drugs ever compounded, and today Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is recognized from coast to coast as the standard remedy for woman's ills.

In the Pinkham Laboratory at Lynn, Mass., are files containing hundreds of thousands of letters from women seeking health—many of them openly state over their own signatures that they have regained their health by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; and in some cases that it has saved them from surgical operations.

ASKING COUNTY PARK BE LIGHTED WITH ELECTRICITY

At a meeting of the Orange Commercial Club last night, the members endorsed a proposal to establish a small electric light plant at the County Park. The Orange men who discussed the matter said that they believed it would add to the enjoyment of the place by the public if the park were lighted at night. The matter will be taken up by the Orange delegates at the next meeting of the Associated Chambers of Commerce.

The county already has a gasoline engine at the park, and it is believed that for $500 more the light could be supplied.

AMUSEMENTS

AT CLUNE'S

Remarkable Realism in Coney Island Dive Scene

The largest set built at the Hollywood studios since D. W. Griffith finished producing "The Birth of a Nation" there was used in the four-part Mutual Masterpiece, "Up From the Depths." This interior was constructed to present the type of large cafe and music hall so much in evidence at Coney Island during the summer. An idea of the size of it can be got when it is remembered that over 200 people appeared in the scenes in which it is shown. These extras among them were a troupe of girls who appeared as a chorus—were drilled for over a week before the picture was taken.

This set, which measured 150 by 50 feet, was constructed under the personal supervision of Director Paul Powell. Here Gladys Brockwell, as Daire Vincent, the girl betrayed by the revivist, impersonated by Courtney Foote, is shown earning her living as a cabaret performer, and it is here that the great scene of the play, a raid by the police, occurs.

"Up From the Depths" will be shown at Clune's Theatre on Saturday and Sunday.

REDLANDS JITNEYS THREATEN TO QUIT

REDLANDS, Sept. 17.—Redlands may soon be without jitney buses. The city ordinance, recently passed, requires that each driver carry a $5000 insurance policy as a protection to patrons against accident. On this policy he must pay $78 premium. NEWS NOTES FROM

ORANGE CITY

ORANGE, Sept. 17.—At their regular meeting yesterday evening the Fraternal Aid Union elected delegates to the Southern California District Convention, which will be held at Pomona, October 5th. The delegates were elected as follows: D. C. Drake, Mrs. L. P. Gitchell, Mrs. Julia F. Campbell, Mrs. C. B. Christenson and Mrs. Adah Meadows. Alternates were chosen as follows: G. A. Shoemaker, H. Z. Adams, C. B. Campbell and D. F. Campbell.

The secretary read a report of the supreme president given at the convention in Pasadena late in July. After the business session refreshments of lemonade and pop corn were served and a short program was rendered. It was a pleasant occasion for all present.

The Orange fire company concluded their regular fire drill last night with a banquet for the members of the department and this enjoyable event was followed by a raid on the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hannigan Moberly, newlyweds, who reside on South Grand street.

The firemen were met with a warm welcome and a delightful time was spent with the Moberlys. In the course of their visit a handsome rocker was presented to the host and hostess as a mark of esteem from the firemen.

THIN FOLKS WHO

WOULD BE FAT

Increase in Weight Ten Pounds or More

"I'd certainly give most anything to be able to fat up a few pounds and stay that way," declares every excessively thin man or woman. Such a result is not impossible, despite past failures. Most thin people are victims of mal-nutrition, a condition which prevents the fatty elements of food from being taken up by the blood as they are, when the powers of nutrition are normal. Instead of getting into the blood, much of the fat and flesh producing elements stay in the intestines until they pass from the body as waste.

To correct this condition and to produce a healthy normal amount of fat, the nutritive processes must be artificially supplied with the power which nature has denied them. This can probably best be accomplished by eating a Sargol tablet, with every meal. Sargol is a careful combination of six splendid assimilative agents. Taken with meals they mix with the food to turn the sugars and starches of what you have eaten into rich, ripe nourishment for the tissues and blood and its rapid effect has been in many cases reported remarkable. Reported gains of from ten to twenty-five pounds in a single month are by no means infrequent. Yet its action is perfectly natural and absolutely harmless. Sargol is sold by all druggists everywhere and every package contains a guarantee of weight increase or money back.

NOTE:—Sargol is recommended only as a flesh builder and while excellent results in cases of nervous indigestion, etc., have been reported, care should be taken about using it unless a gain of weight is desired.—Advertisement.

GREAT MUSIC FESTIVAL AT EXPOSITION

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 17.—The climax of all the extraordinary musical events of the year at the Panama-Pacific International Exposition at San Francisco will be reached in the five-day Autumn Music Festival from Wednesday, September 29, to the following Sunday, inclusive. For months the exposition has been developing plans for an event which shall rival the great music festivals of Birmingham, England, and Boston and Toronto.

The great chorus of 400 voices will be conducted by Emil Mollenhauer, leader of the famous Boston band at the exposition and conductor of the Handel and Haydn Society of Boston, opening with Mendelssohn's "Elijah" on Wednesday evening, the 29th. Thursday evening will be given over to the concert by Fritz Kreisler, king of the violinists, accompanied by the great Exposition Orchestra of 100 musicians, led by Max Bendix.

Verdi's "Requiem" is listed for Friday night and Sunday afternoon, and the great Artists' Concert will be heard Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The soloists for Wednesday include the celebrated Evan Williams, tenor, with the extraordinary baritone, Earl Cartwright, in the role of "Elijah"; Grace Bonner Williams of Boston, soprano, and Mme. Florence Mulford of the Metropolitan Opera, contralto, all of whom have won distinction in the great festivals of the East.

In connection with the "Requiem," to be heard for the first time in California, the soloists will be Mme. Emmy Destinn, whose glorious voice and consummate art long have graced the Metropolitan Opera; Mme. Florence Mulford, Frederic Martin, regarded as America's greatest basso profundo, and George Herold, equally famous.

Fritz Kreisler will be heard for the first time in California since the opening of the European war, having recovered from the wounds which for several months threatened to put an end to his artistic career. It is a matter of common knowledge amongst musical experts that the supreme test of a great violinist is the performance of a great concerto, accompanied by a huge orchestra. This was shown by the immense physical and mental strain put upon Paderewski at his concerts at the exposition a few weeks ago. So wrought up was he that for several minutes after the close of the concerto he could hardly speak. As with Paderewski so with Kreisler. In the Beethoven concerto Kreisler rises to the greatest heights possible for a violinist to attain. His only appearance with an orchestra in San Francisco this season will be in connection with the augmented Exposition Orchestra of 100 players, led by Max Bendix, at the Autumn Music Festival at Festival Hall, on September 30.

TWO BOYS BACK UP ON STORIES TOLD IN TRIAL

Mrs. Spray, was untrue, and that I was mistaken about that matter; that a woman did not give me a letter to be delivered to Mrs. Spray, and that I do not remember of receiving a letter from any person, to be delivered.

Calls For Hearing

This morning Judge Thomas called for a hearing in regard to the affidavits. The attorneys in the case and District Attorney West were present. The two boys were told by Judge Thomas that all that any person present desired was the simple truth, nothing more nor less.

The bare-footed Dorsten boy was first quizzed. He stood by the affidavit. Willard finally said the affidavit was untrue.

Diedrich said that a Mr. Price at Orange told him to meet Mrs. Clayton and they "could get out of the trial." The two boys went to the W. H. H. Clayton home, where the two affidavits were already written out and on the table.

"How did you come to testify as you did at the trial, if what you now say is true?" asked Judge Thomas.

"Because they kept telling me Miss Huber was the one," said Dorsten. "When Mrs. Firman pointed her out I said I guessed she was the one. Mrs. Firman said I must know for sure. She said she knew she was the one, and that I did, too. Mrs. Firman said that about every time I saw her, and I got to thinking so, too."

"What is the truth? Did you get that letter from Miss Huber?" "I did not get any letter from her that I know of. I told Mrs. Firman the woman I got the letter from was big, and Mrs. Firman said didn't I know she was about her size."

Money and Fireworks

Willard was turned to. He said that Firman, one of the private detectives in the case, told Diedrich that he would buy him a suit after the trial, and that witness fees would come to $10. After the trial Bird gave each of the boys $5 and a lot of fireworks, they figured about $3.50 worth apiece. They said Bird gave them a party.

"Didn't you come to my office twice since the trial?" asked Attorney Bishop, "and did you not tell me that Mrs. Clayton told you you were able to be sent to the reform school if you did not sign an affidavit? Didn't you tell me that Mrs. Clayton was worrying your mother sick over this matter? Did I not tell you that if Miss Huber did give you the letter it was your duty to so testify? Did I not ask you if she did give you the letter, and did you not say she did?"

To each of these questions Dorsten answered in the affirmative.

"When you testified in the case you told how the woman who gave you the letter was dressed, how she talked as though she had something in her mouth and how she talked like a foreigner," continued Bishop.

"Yes," said the boy. "Mrs. Firman told me she talked like she had something in her mouth and that she talked like a foreigner."

"Did you sign this affidavit because you were afraid Mrs. Clayton would send you to the reform school?"

"No."

Says He Was Scared

Willard Woodward said that when he signed the affidavit he told Mrs. Clayton that he did get a letter from some one, but the affidavit says he said he got no letter from anyone.

"I did get the letter," said he, "but I don't remember anything about who gave it to me."

"Did Miss Huber give it to you?" asked Bishop.

"I don't know," was the response.

Later, Willard said that he would not have signed the affidavit if he had not been afraid of Mrs. Clayton. He said Mrs. Clayton told him about the possibility of reform school sentence.

"Before the trial Firman went over the case with us," said Willard. "Mrs. Firman first suggested to me that Miss Huber was the one. I don't know who gave me the letter."

"All we want here is the truth," said the judge.

Mr. Head: "All of us here are your friends and we want the truth regardless of what any person has said."

"Describe the woman who gave you the letter," said Attorney Head.

"Well, she had a black dress, and she talked like Miss Huber."

"Was it Miss Huber?"

"It might have been."

"But was it Miss Huber?"

"Yes, it was Miss Huber."

And there the boy was back at the place he started from when he gave his original testimony in the trial.

"Did you sign that affidavit because you were afraid of her?" was asked of Willard.

"Yes," said he.

"What did Mrs. Clayton say to you about this matter?" was asked of the Dorsten boy.

BEAUTIFUL EAST SIDE HOME—residence of E. D. Burge. Architects and builders of Santa Ana are looking forward to a season of considerable activity in building during the fall and winter. A number of new residences have been started recently and more are contemplated.

TO BUILD A $6000 RESIDENCE ON EAST FOURTH

Work On Handsome Home
For J. G. Quick to Be Begun Next Week

Work is to be started the first of next week on a $6000 residence for J. G. Quick in the 1600 block on East Fourth street. The home will be located almost directly opposite that of S. H. Finley and on the lots east of the handsome residence sold several years ago by Quick.

Plans for the work have been prepared by Architects Elwing and Tedford. The residence will be in the Italian style of architecture and the front exterior will be finished in plaster, trimmed in red ruffled brick.

There will be six rooms downstairs and two upstairs, in addition to a number of commodious bath and dressing rooms. The bath room will be fitted with built-in bath fixtures.

The downstairs rooms are to be finished in mahogany and will have oak floors. A feature of the large living room will be a handsome fireplace with a copper hood.

The lighting provisions of the new residence are exceptionally complete, the windows being large and located in the most advantageous positions. There will be a sun room at the southwest corner having plate glass windows. An attractive breakfast room will be located at the southeast corner of the house.

SECURES CITRUS FRUIT LAND AT VILLA PARK

Orange Post: H. R. Perkins, proprietor of the Perkins Bakery in this city, has made an exchange of property whereby he comes into possession of 5½ acres of choice citrus fruit land in the frostless Villa Park section. Mr. Perkins exchanged the building occupied as a bakery and that used by him as a residence, No. 129 and 133 South Orange street, respectively, to J. C. Steffens for the ranch northeast of this city. The land is equally set to Valencia oranges and lemons, the trees being in bearing, while there is also a good house on the place.

Although he has thus disposed of his two buildings here, Mr. Perkins will continue in the baking business, he having leased both of the buildings from Mr. Steffens, who desired city property, while Mr. Perkins considers an investment on ranch property a good thing to make at this time, as he has confidence in the future of this locality.

The deal was made through the Whitney Realty Company.

ANAHEIM UNION PLANS BUILDING $7000 SIPHON

Anaheim Gazette: The Anaheim Union Water Company will in the near future begin the construction of a six-foot reinforced concrete siphon to replace flume 7 on the main ditch above Yorba. The flume is 700 feet long, and was built twenty-two years ago. The cost of the siphon is estimated at about $7000.

BUYS PROPERTY

Orange Post: Mrs. Mae Fitzsimons has purchased a lot on North Glassell street and the house and lot owned by Ralph Welch on the same street in the block north.

500 HOGS NOW ON RANCH NEAR ANAHEIM; INDUSTRY SUCCESSFUL

Anaheim Plain Dealer: "Pigs is Pigs" according to the common belief, but the kind of pigs that Bill Montgomery raises on the Bastanchury ranch near Fullerton are different pigs, and of a superior variety. They belong to the Berkshire family, and are thoroughbreds. More than 500 are now being fed at the Los Alamitos sugar factory, and fattened on the nutritious sugar beet tailings, and were taken there to save the transportation cost of the beets to the ranch.

Specialist

Bill Montgomery is a specialist in his line of business. He has studied conditions in Southern California for years, and announces that this section of the country is particularly well adapted to the raising of pigs. That his views are correct can easily be proven by the fact that he is making a success of the business. He states that there is an ample and profitable market here for hogs, and that the ranchers are passing up an excellent opportunity in not paying more attention to this line of business.

Ranch Manager

He is the manager of the large D. K. Bastanchury ranch, located near Fullerton. He has held this position for some years, and suggested to the owners the importance of this industry to the community. Immediately plans were formed along the lines of Mr. Montgomery's suggestions, and he was given a free hand in developing his ideas, which have since proved to be an absolute success.

At the Los Alamitos sugar factory there are now about 500 thoroughbred Berkshire pigs ranging in age from one day to four years, that are beyond question the best that have been raised in Southern California.

Reduce Maintenance

The hogs are kept there to reduce their maintenance to a minimum. When the idea of hog raising was first started by Mr. Montgomery, he suggested that thoroughbred stock be secured. After careful investigation the Whittier Farm school was found to produce hogs of a superior Berkshire variety. About fifty young sows were purchased and brought to the Bastanchury ranch and they are the beginning of the now important and large industry. In speaking about the matter, Mr. Montgomery said:

Important Industry

"Few people realize the importance of the hog industry in this community. I have made a study of raising hogs all my life, and was engaged in the same business when I was seventeen years old 'way back in Pennsylvania.' I take every precaution possible to raise the standard of the stock, as well as apply every modern sanitary method. Our pigs are healthy, rapid growers, and require less feed than the average, thereby making them more profitable. As soon as the sugar beet season ends we will bring the pigs back to the ranch, and before that time will begin the construction of extensive pens, where they will be housed. We have also purchased a boiler, which will be erected and used to furnish steam for the boiling of the food given the stock.

Use Silos

"Our large alfalfa crops and corn stored in silos will be placed in large boiling vats, then thoroughly cooked and seasoned with molasses, the waste of the sugar factories, and fed to the animals. This is very superior to solid grain feeding, and fattens much quicker.

"This method not only has a great effect in lowering the price of meat in this vicinity by eliminating the freight costs of shipping the animals here from Northern and Eastern points, but also insures the high quality of the product. H. Reuther, general manager of the Anaheim Beef and Provision Company, assured us that we could not produce too many hogs to be used by his company. Further he says that their business is increasing steadily, and in spite of the fact that they are shipping hogs from Idaho and other Northern states here weekly, they could not supply the demand for pork from their customers.

Helps County

"This company, he stated, although one of the least appreciated is one of the most important in this vicinity. Their business is not only benefiting Anaheim, but helps every community in the county, as well as adjoining counties.

"They afford not only a market for the sale of hogs, or cattle, but will also purchase hay, and other feed stuffs whenever offered. You don't have to make any previous arrangement with this company to ascertain whether or not they are in the market for your products. Simply take your products there, and they will always pay the highest market prices."

Orange Post: The contract for the erection of the tasty residence of Carl G. Jorn, this to be located in the Nutwood tract in the southern part of Orange, has been awarded to the Orange Contracting & Milling Company and work is under way. TO RECEIVE WALNUTS AT RICHLAND SEPT. 21

Orange News: The packing house of the Richland Walnut Association will open to receive walnuts September 21.

There are at present 110 growers in the local association and the crop estimate is about 250 tons of walnuts. BIXBY COMPANY PUMP FROM CANYON WELL

Fullerton Tribune: The new well of the Bixby Development Company, located in the Santa Ana canyon about two and one-half miles above Olive, has been put on the pump and produced 100 inches of water. The well is 420 feet deep and there is 67 feet of water. The pipe line under the Santa Ana river, leading to the company's reservoir, is nearly completed. This 12-inch line is 9600 feet long. It will deliver water to a 600,000 gallon reservoir, from which it will be redistributed over the 370 acres which the company will put out to trees. H. T. Thompson and Willard Smith, directors of the concern, are directing the development of the tract which will add materially to the citrus acreage of that section. Beside the 370 acres of bench land on the south side of the river, which lies above the canyon road, the company also has forty acres on the north side. Irrigation water will be pumped from the north side of the river for watering the tract on the south side.

Expanding and Expounding Greater Value Giving

One thing we never lose sight of in the Live Store . . . Greater Value-Giving . . . We're on the hunt for it every hour of every day and any man, who can show us the way toward expanding our values without extending our prices, will always find a warm welcome here.

To date, however, we've found no merchandise so filled with greater value-giving possibilities as are

S. A. WHOLESALE GROCERY SELL PLACENTIA TOMATOES

Placentia Courier: Papers were signed Tuesday by which an eastern capitalist of means and the ambition to make the Placentia Preserving Company's new process of canning oranges a national success, leases the entire plant.

For the present the plant will work on tomatoes and other products and start on oranges later in the winter. The tomato season at the plant will begin next Tuesday. The output will be small the first two weeks, as tomatoes will mature late here this year, but it is expected that a large pack will be put up and at prices much above the average. J. L. Stevenson, the inventor and perfecter of the special processes employed at the plant, states that the Placentia tomato is the best in the state. The Santa Ana Wholesale Grocery Company has instructed their salesmen to take orders for Placentia tomatoes. They cost more than others, but are well worth it.

Other wholesalers have the same opinion of the product. Mrs. Coombs will again be forelady of the plant.

PLACENTIA, Sept. 17.—R. T. Davies, manager of the Fay Fruit Company, is shipping one car a week of a special grade of Valencia direct into the San Francisco exposition grounds, consigned to the Stewart Fruit Company. These are 50's to 96's, from the orchard of G. W. Sherwood in this district. The fruit is not wrapped, but is repacked and repacked in the presence of the purchasers at the exposition. There are salesmen on the grounds who take orders from tourists for cartons, half-boxes and boxes. The buyers go into the packing room and watch the fruit packed as ordered, and so assure themselves that they are getting the finest Valencia grown anywhere in California, if not in the world. The car shipped today contained 650 boxes.

GREAT MUSIC FESTIVAL AT EXPOSITION

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 17.—The climax of all the extraordinary musical events of the year at the Panama-Pacific International Exposition at San Francisco will be reached in the five-day Autumn Music Festival from Wednesday, September 29, to the following Sunday, inclusive. For months the exposition has been developing plans for an event which shall rival the great music festivals of Birmingham, England, and Boston and Toronto.

The great chorus of 400 voices will be conducted by Emil Mollenhauer, leader of the famous Boston band at the exposition and conductor of the Handel and Haydn Society of Boston, opening with Mendelssohn's "Elijah" on Wednesday evening, the 29th. Thursday evening will be given over to the concert by Fritz Kreisler, king of the violinists, accompanied by the great Exposition Orchestra of 100 musicians, led by Max Bendix.

Verdi's "Requiem" is listed for Friday night and Sunday afternoon, and the great Artists' Concert will be heard Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The soloists for Wednesday include

SOAP IS BAD FOR THE HAIR

Soap should be used very sparingly, if at all, if you want to keep your hair looking its best. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it.

The best thing for steady use is just ordinary mulified coconut oil (which is pure and greaseless), is cheaper and better than soap or anything else you can use.

One or two teaspoonfuls will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get mulified coconut oil at any pharmacy, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months.

Our Gift to you of this $5 Bible

No difference how many Bibles you now have, this one MAKES PLAIN the subjects by pictures printed with the type; so of all others, this is the USEFUL Bible for all. PRESENTED by the

to its readers, who will ever be grateful for the opportunity offered by this grand educational distribution.

In addition to the 600 beautiful text illustrations are full page plates of the famous Tisot pictures in handsome colors. As Edward K. Bok, editor of the Ladies' Home Journal, says: "This Bible is not a meaningless picture book. The illustrations serve a distinct purpose. They enrich the text, but they do more—they intelligently EXPLAIN it, so that many a hitherto obscure passage assumes to thousands a new meaning through these eye-teaching pictures."

You will enjoy this Bible, whether you belong to the church or not, for its "eye-teaching" pictures make it of rare educational value to all.

Today's Bible Certificate will be found on another page.

This is what Abraham Lincoln said: "No library is complete without two certain books—the Bible and Shakespeare; hardly a quotation is used in literature that is not taken from one of these books."

the celebrated Evan Williams, tenor, with the extraordinary baritone, Earl Cartwright, in the role of "Elijah"; Grace Bonner Williams of Boston, soprano, and Mme. Florence Mulford of the Metropolitan Opera, contralto, all of whom have won distinction in the great festivals of the East.

In connection with the "Requiem," to be heard for the first time in California, the soloists will be Mme. Emmy Destinn, whose glorious voice and consummate art long have graced the Metropolitan Opera; Mme. Florence Mulford, Frederic Martine, regarded as America's greatest basso profundo, and George Hamlin, equally famous.

Fritz Kreisler will be heard for the first time in California since the opening of the European war, having recovered from the wounds which for several months threatened to put an end to his artistic career. It is a matter of common knowledge amongst musical experts that the supreme test of a great concerto, accompanied by a huge orchestra. This was shown by the immense physical and mental strain put upon Padarevski at his concerts at the exposition a few weeks ago. So wrought up was he that for several minutes after the close of the concerto he could hardly speak. As with Padarevski so with Kreisler. In the Beethoven concerto Kreisler rises to the greatest heights possible for a violinist to attain. His only appearance with an orchestra in San Francisco this season will be in connection with the augmented Exposition Orchestra of 100 players, led by Max Bendix, at the Autumn Music Festival at Festival Hall, on September 30.

COLD SUMMER COST CHICAGO A BIG SUM

CHICAGO, Sept. 17.—Chicago's cold summer has cost $500,000 to proprietors of outdoor amusement places. Summer garden owners alone, they have figured out, will deposit $250,000 less to their credit this year than they did in 1914. The other quarter of a million has been lost by owners of picnic parks and bathing beaches. Midway Gardens, with heavy brick walls, of great height, suffered less than other gardens. But even Midway had to close August 15. Morris Biefield, manager of White City, is authority for the claim that the loss will reach half a million dollars, because of cold weather and the abnormal number of rainy evenings. The last of the biggest and most popular summer gardens, and amusement parks will close Sunday—nearly a month earlier than on previous years.

URGES STREETS PETITION FOR OIL-GRAVEL

Spurgeon Street From Seventeenth North Nearly Signed
For Improvement

If Trustee Maryatt has his way
about it, a number of Santa Ana dirt streets will be improved with oil and gravel this winter.

There seems to be little question
but that Spurgeon street from Seventeenth street north to the Southern Pacific is going to be oiled and graveled, that is, if the city will pay for the spreading of the oil and gravel. Riverine street north of Hickey street is also likely to be improved in the same way.

City Trustee Maryatt says that he would like to see all property owners of the city get together and make arrangements for the oiling and graveling of their street.

"At the last meeting of the city
board," said he, "I fathered a proposal to quit the use of sprinkling wagons and use the money now used in sprinkling in oiling and graveling dirt streets. The matter was not passed upon favorably. I am very strongly of the opinion that the city ought to quit wasting money sprinkling. However, if a general campaign for oiling and graveling all dirt streets cannot be started now, I would urge that individual streets take up the matter,
circulate agreements to pay for oil and gravel, and ask the city to do the work. Personally I am in favor of a general policy of the city accepting proper proposals for oil and gravel improvement, the city paying for the grading of the street and the spreading of the gravel and oil.

"The experience our street superintendent has had and the work of the street department demonstrates that an excellent job can be done. Take Halladay street. That street is improved with gravel and oil, yet it appears to be just as good as pavement.
We ought to encourage just as many streets as possible to be improved the way that street has been improved."

Just how far the city can go with the work this year may necessitate close investigation. The money available to run the city government for the year is such that it is stated that the city cannot enter upon any enterprise that is going to take an unusual amount of money. Trustee Maryatt, however, proposes to further oil and gravel work with money that he would save if the sprinkling were discontinued.

Maryatt says he knows that a large proportion of the property owners would gladly pay for their proportion of the oil and gravel for bettering their streets. Taking each street, however, there is generally offered a difficulty in that one or two property owners decline to pay their share.
Maryatt says that upon such a person
he would use the Vrooman Act.

Spurgeon street north of Seventeenth is holding back filing its petition for want of the signature of one property owner. That property owner lives in Tennessee. The petition has been sent to him, and it is believed he will sign it.

JEWELER SHOWS HAD NO INTENT TO BREAK LAW

Not Likely That Complaint Be Issued For Hartfield For Nickel Gilding

Los Angeles Times: B. Hartfield,
an Anaheim jeweler, and W. H. Lessner, a manufacturing jeweler, with offices in the Title Guarantee building, this city, were before Assistant
United States District Attorney Moody yesterday, who conducted an investigation of the charges against the men that they had violated the federal statutes relating to the defacement of coins by plating buffalo nickels. Both men acknowledged that they had broken the law, but alleged that they did so unintentionally, and the district attorney accepted their view of the situation.

During the day an attempt was made to get John B. Gorman, an employee of the Anaheim Sugar Company, who had placed with Hartfield the order for the watch chain and bracelet made of the gilded nickels. Hart-field and Lessner made a trip to Anaheim, in order to show their good faith in the matter, for the purpose of getting Gorman to come to the Federal building and explain his connection with the matter, but they brought back from Moody a written statement to the effect that Gorman had voluntarily left the employ of the company at Anaheim on September 7.

It appeared from the investigation
yesterday that, after Hartfield had received a bill from Lessner for $5.50
for the work, the Anaheim man added $.25 as his commission on the job, making $5.75 in all. While Gorman was making up his mind whether he would pay that amount, the word came that George W. Hazen, secret service agent of the United States Treasury Department, was investigating the matter. Then Gorman offered $11 for the chain and bracelet, but Hartfield was afraid to let him have the goods.
In a day or two Gorman left the country.

Mr. Moody said yesterday the matter would be allowed to rest until Gorman could be found. The impression is that no complaint will be issued in the case, in view of the explanation.
